KENT WAIVES HIS PRELIMINARY

BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT, BAIL BEING $7,500.

KENT WILL REMAIN HERE

Denied Gun Used Was From Home of George Wilson—Was Unable to Give Bail.

J. T. Kent, the Quitman bank robber, waived his preliminary before Justice W. L. Johnson this morning and was bound over until the April term of curcuit court to be held Monday, April 4. His bail was fixed at $7,500 but being unable to give it he was placed back in jail.

Kent, who has been a prisoner in the Buchanan County jail at St. Joseph, since the bank was robbed last Friday, was brought to Maryville by Sheriff Steve A. Roach. Kent will be kept in the county jail here until his trial in circuit court. He expressed a wish to be kept here instead of being taken back to St. Joseph.

O. D. Kent of Near Wilcox, a brother of Kent, was present at the preliminary. He was his only relative in attendance.

When questioned by Prosecuting Attorney Charles McCaffrey this morning, Kent denied he had taken the gun that was used in the bank robbery from the home of George Wilson of near Clearmont. He stated the gun was given to him for a week's board.

Kent also stated that he was innocent of the highway robbery charge in Labette County, Kan., having been convicted of that charge in 1917 and being sentenced to a term in the Kansas pententiary. He refused to answer the question whether he had ever been in jail in Iowa for changing a money order.

H. C. Bailey, the cashier of the bank at Quitman, and who was held up, came to Maryville today at noon. He stated there was $30 in gold which had not yet been recovered. He visited Kent at the county jail to trace his steps and find out if it could be found.

In answering questions put to him by Prosecuting Attorney McCaffrey, Kent said he was 29 years old and that he had lived in the Clearmont community ever since he was a little fellow. He said his wife is living in Leavenworth, Kan., with her mother. He told Mr. McCaffrey he came to Nodaway county just a week ago today and visited with his brother at Wilcox.

Kent denied the gun was taken from George Wilson. The questions put to him by Mr. McCaffrey and the answers by Kent follow:

Q. You remember of your telling me down in the jail that you had owned this gun for some time?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Well, you got it at Wilson's?

A. No, sir. I can prove this is my own gun.

Q. You did not steal this gun?

A. No, sir.

Q. Positive of that?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you went to the bank at

ROBEY ELIMINATED AT CITY PRIMARY

RAN THIRD IN RACE FOR MAYOR AT YESTERDAY'S ELECTION.

ROBINSON LED 86 VOTES

As He Had Many Workers Out and Every Robinson Voter Was Voted—Curfman Second Place.

The Vote by Wards.

For Mayor.	1st	2d	3d	4th	Total
Curfman	131	140	167	187	625
Robey	31	56	14	71	172
Robinson	110	145	217	239	711
Councilmen
Mutz	215	283	331	313	1142
Remus	209	276	314	301	1100

At the city primary held yesterday, Arthur S. Robey was eliminated as a candidate for mayor, being the third man in the race with 172 votes. The names of Roy J. Curfman and Fred P. Robinson will go on the ticket at the city election to be held April 5.

Robinson was high man on the ticket, getting 86 votes more than Curfman. Robinson carried the second ward by 5 votes, the third ward by 50 votes and the fourth ward by 52 votes. Curfman carried the first ward by 21 votes.

Many of the Curfman supporters were surprised that the Robinson vote was not more than it was an account of the many workers, cars and the effective organization used for Robinson. There were several cars for Robinson in the fourth ward as well as in the other wards and they were kept busy all day getting the Robinson vote.

There were several volunteer workers for Curfman, but apparently no effective organization.

As one man expressed it last evening: "It seems to me that the Robinson strength was voted. At least he can't have a very much better organization on the regular election day. Nearly all of the Curfman vote was voluntary as he had only a few workers and no organization. As a number of voters did not vote at the primary, what will they do at the regular election? It is my prediction that a majority of them will be for Curfman."

The total vote cast at the primary was 1508.

Harry H. Mutz and Charles F. Remus for councilmen were nominated as they had no opposition.

HIGH ORCHESTRA TO GIVE FESTIVAL

AUDITORIUM TO BE DECORATED IN GREEN AND YELLOW COLORS

9 SPECIAL ACTS PLANNED

Numbers Will Be Both Standard Popular—"The Bow-Wow" One Specialty

The high school orchestra will give a musical festival in the high school auditorium Friday evening, according to Loren J. Schnabel, director. It is to be quite an elaborate affair. The auditorium is to be decorated in the Easter colors yellow and green, while the orchestra itself is to be in an immense Easter Egg.

Besides the numbers, which are to be given by the orchestra there are to be special acts. The high school quartet, Allen, Lunsford, Yehle and Foreman in character costumes are to give several numbers. Miss Ruth Miller is to do a character sketch while Masters will do two trombone on for cornetology. Olive Ewing dressed as a rabbit and Lunsford dressed as a chicken will do a duet.

William Neilsen is on for several special songs to help the students. Every one of the special acts is to be in costume. One of the sketches is to be "The Bow-Wow." One of the boys dressed as a dog will do a stunt of "bow wowing."

The orchestra numbers will be both standard and popular. Several are Easter selections, prepared especially for the occassion. There are 30 members to the orchestra and all of them will take part in the program. The Easter idea is to be carried out as far as possible in all of the stunts and decorations.

The proceeds from the entertainment are to go to the music organizations of the school; glee club and orchestra. Those in charge of the affair are planning to make every thing as unique as possible. Interest will be created in every way.

"It will be a much better show than the Follies," said Loran Schnabel, who is helping put it on. It's to be a different kind of show and a better one."

WILL CONTINUE TO BE DRY DESPITE TENTATIVE RULING.

Washington, March 23.—Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Nebraska will continue to be dry despite the tentative ruling of the government that beer may be prescribed for "ailing citizens." The ruling of former Attorney General Palmer, it was learned today, permits doctors to prescribe one and one-eighth gallons per week or sixty gallons per year to each sick patient. The beer can be retailed only by licensed druggists. The ruling is subject to the approval of the secretary of treasury before it becomes effective.

A maggiage license was issued today to Otis Brown of Graham and Dela Pearl Kellar of White Cloud, Kansas.

BOY SCOUTS MAY ENTER TRACK MEET

MARYVILLE HAS 5 WHO ARE ELIGIBLE FOR EVENT.

LAMONI, IOWA INVITES

M. A. Peery, Scoutmaster, With Frank Cummins, Will Take Up the Matter.

The Boy Scouts of Maryville may enter a track meet with the Scouts of Albany, Lamoni, Iowa and other towns in this part of the country, according to M. A. Peery, scoutmaster. The Maryville troop has some pretty good material. The boys would show up well. Morris Chick and Jarvis Bush would make a pretty good showing, it is predicted, while three others are members of the high school track squad, Marion Gile, Gerald Keefe and Townsend Godsey.

Mr. Peery deceived a letter from Floyd Egstrom, business manager of the Boy Scouts of Lamoni, asking the Maryville Scouts to join in this meet. It seems that the Scouts heard of the Maryville Scouts through the girls' basketball team at Albany.

Lamoni is about 50 miles from here and it would take about $50 to take the Scouts over in a car. The matter will be taken up at once with the Boy Scouts, according to Mr. Peery and if it proves feasible, there will be entrants from here.

There are two troops of Boy Scouts in Maryville. Frank Cummins is the other Scout master.

Sunday, while in Albany, Mr. Peery organized two troops of Boy Scouts. The organization is growing in this part of Missouri and it is likely that more interesting programs can be given.

KINNAIRD WAS CONFERRING WITH COUNTY BREEDERS TUES.

E. E. Carver Guilford Reports Conditions Favorable For Sale There

R. A. Kinnaird, agricultural agent of Nodaway County was out in the interest of the Better Bulls campaign yesterday. The breeders in the different communities where the sales are scheduled are listing animals for the sales. It is thought that all of the sales will be successful.

Meetings have been held at Maryville, Burlington Junction, Barnard and Conception Junction to create an interest in eliminating the scrub bulls.

Mr. Kinnaird feels that a number of scrub bulls will be replaced in campaign. The Kansas City Chamber of Commerce has offered a first prize of $1000 to the county in Missouri, which eliminates the most scrub bulls in 1921. Second and third prizes of lesser amounts are offered, too. More than 40 Missouri counties have entered this contest, so it will not be a walkaway for any of them.

E. E. Carver chairman of the committee reported to Mr. Kinnaird that he expected a successful sale at Guilford.

MRS. GLENN'S READING CALLED RARE TREAT BY WOMEN CLUB

Gave John Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln" at Elk's Club—Explanations Instructive.

"The rarest treat Maryville has had in many a day," was the comment made by a number of the one hundred and sixty women who heard Mrs. J. C. Glenn of Kansas City read John Drinkwater's play, "Abraham Lincoln," in the lodge room at the Elk's club yesterday afternoon. The entertainment was given by the Shakespeare department of the Twentieth Century club with Mrs. Ed G. Orear and Mrs. Anderson Craig in charge of the afternoon.

Mrs. Glenn's reading of the play, her explanations and side-talks, were instructive and educational as well as entertaining. Mrs. Glenn is the president, as well as the founder of the Art and Literature club in Kansas City. She has read the play, "Abraham Lincoln," before five other large clubs recently and all audiences were highly pleased with the reading.

Mrs. C. C. Hellmers, president of the Twentieth Century club, and Mrs. Arthur A. Brewer, chairman of the Shakespeare department, and Mrs. Glenn were in the receiving line. Mrs. Brewer introduced Mrs. Glenn to the assemblage, and preceding the lecture, Mrs. Glenn gave Elbert Hubbard's "Tribute to Nancy Hanks, Mother of Lincoln." Mrs. Glenn read the entire four acts of the play, giving a technical view of the play. One of the main points brought out in an explanatory talk, that if there was a criticism to be made of John Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln," it was his conception of negro dialect, his conception resembling more the speech of the Indian.

Mrs. A. F. Harvey, daughter of Mrs. Glenn, sang, "John Brown's Body," a song which is a part of the play. The lecture was a little more than an hour long, and following the guests were taken to the tea room.

A large basket of lavender sweet peas and narcissus centered the table and tea was poured by Mrs. W. O. Garrett. Mrs. D. J. Thomas, Mrs. J. F. Hull, Mrs. Emmett Scott, Mrs. Gallatin Craig and Miss Grace Langan assisted in serving.

The meeting was an open one for the Shakespeare department and each member of the Twentieth Century club was permitted to bring guests. The program was the one arranged for February, but was postponed to suit the convience of Mrs. Glenn.

Mrs. F. H. Metzeir of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. J. Newton Alexander and Mrs. Hubert Null of the Harmony community were out-of-town guests, the latter two representing the Harmony Community club.

Mrs. Glenn returned to Kansas City this morning after visiting here since Friday of last week with her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Harvey.

MRS. BELLOWS RECEIVES GARMENTS

WOMEN OF ORRSBURG AND MARYVILLE RESPOND TO CALL

NEED 250,000 LAYETTES

Mrs. Bellows to Visit Other Towns Soon in Behalf of Auxilliary Volunteer Service

Mrs. C. D. Bellows, chairman of the volunteer auxilliary Committe of the Red Cross has received six garments from the women of Orrsburg and Maryville. Mrs. Bellows is pleased with the response, which she has had from the clubs in the county to take up this work. Some of the clubs are spending just a small amount of time on the work. The garments are badly needed by the war orphans of Europe especially, Poland. All of those made in the county are sent to headquarters and from there forwarded to the sufferers abroad.

In Poland 5 miles of box cars have been seen in one place housing these little war orphans while old newspapers are used to wrap new born babies in. The need of these children is great. The matter was investigated by the Red Cross before a call was sent out for children's clothing.

Mrs. Bellows is chairman of the auxilliary service in Nodaway County and is asking the women in the different communities, who did war work to make a few of these garments. If each of a number of clubs or organizations make a few it will not mean much work, Mrs. Bellows says.

Mrs. Bellows with Miss Betty Turner, executive secretary for Nodaway County expects to visit some of the towns in the county in a short time in behalf of this work. They planned to go out this last week but were detained.

Since the call has gone out for these little orphans of Europe 746 Red Cross Chapters have resumed production. Many of the Polish war orphans have tuberculosis. It has been estimated that 250,000 layettes are needed for babies of the war ridden countries.

The garments asked for in Nodaway County may be made from used garments if the material is clean and whole. Badly worn material can not be used, however, according to Mrs. Bellows. As it would not be practical to spend time sewing on garments that would not wear. The time taken in sending them must be considered as well as trouble. Every thing must be whole and wearable, Mrs. Bellows says.

Use For Referendum.

Editor Lyles of the Eminence Current Wave turns a good point in a very sensible and forceful editorial:

The referendum law that was enacted some years ago has been called into service very few times but the way the party lash is being applied at Jefferson City to put through some partisan measures is sure to bring about a situation that will call the referendum into use.

The bill that was engrossed in the House last Tuesday, providing for the redistricting of the judicial districts of the state in such a way that it would reduce the number of districts to appoint seven new judges, will in probability be passed in the House by four and leave it to the Governor and Senate and signed by the Gov- Governor. If it is, the referendum should speedily be invoked by the Democratic party.

The judges who are now serving in the various districts of the state, were chosen for the places they are filling by a majority vote of the people they are representing and were chosen for a specified team of years.

The Legislature is certainly not vested with a moral right to set aside the decision of the people concerning the incumbents of these offices and it should be prevented from excercising a doubtful legal right.

Get ready for the referendum.

M. E. OTIS DECLINES UNIVERSITY APPOINTMENT.

The following is from the St. Joseph News-Press:

Judge T. B. Allen, dean of the St. Joseph Law School, received a letter today from Merrill E. Otis, first assistant attorney general of Missouri, in which Mr. Otis said that he had been offered a professorship on the faculty of the law school of the University of Missouri. He said, however, that notwithstanding the salary would be a considerable increase over that he is receiving as assistant attorney general, he had declined the place.

Mr. Otis, who has served as assistant prosecuting attorney of Buchanan county and assistant city counselor of St. Joseph, was appointed assistant attorney general at the change in the state administration Jan. 1. He is a member of the faculty of the St. Joseph Law School, and has been strongly urged for appointment of United States attorney for this district.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE

XI.—NEW YORK

THE STORY of New York should rightly begin with 1524, eighty - five years before Henry Hudson's voyage in his little boat, the Half Moon, up the river which now bears his name. For at that early date an Italian navigator, Verrazano, exploring for France, sailed into New York bay. This first visit to New York made little stir and was soon forgotten, and it was Hudson's rediscovery which tempted the Dutch to send over colonists and obtain for the Dutch West India company a monopoly of the Dutch fur trade in America. The new colony which was started in 1623 called its territory New Netherlands, after its mother country, and their principal city New Amsterdam. It is interesting to reflect that Manhattan island, which is now New York city, was purchased from the Indians for $24 worth of beads and ribbons. Even in its earliest days the settlement on Manhattan Island was cosmopolitan. In 1643 it is reported that eighteen different languages were spoken there. In 1664 the English captured New Netherlands, and King Charles II presented the colony to his brother, the duke of York, who was later King James II, and its name was then changed to New York.

New York played a leading part in the formation of the United States. It was Alexander Hamilton who was New York's representative in framing the Constitution and it was New York city which was selected as the first capital of the new Union, where Washington was inaugurated the first president. Ever since the Empire state, as New York is sometimes called, has held the deciding voice in presidential elections. Though its size is only 49,204 square miles, not quite half way in the list of states according to area, its great population gives New York forty-five presidential electors, the largest number of any of the states.

NEWS OF THE STATE

Because the word "male" has not yet been eliminated from the statutes, it was impossible to include the names of any women in the lists for jury service in Macon county, according to the Atlanta, Mo., Express.

Mississippi county farmers have on hand 31 per cent of the 1920 corn crop, 2 per cent of the 1920 wheat crop and 2 per cent of the oat crop of the same year, according to estimates made recently by the State Board of Agriculture.

A movement for an ordinance providing for daylight saving in St. Louis between April 30 and September 30 has been started by the Associated Retailers, employees of the large downtown stores and various other organizations. A similar ordinance was defeated by the Board of Aldermen last year.

St. Louis' newest Hotel Claridge, had its formal opening last week. It is a twelve-story structure and has 350 rooms.

According to an announcement of the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture, approximately $15,000,000 is available to Missouri from local, state and federal sources for road and bridge construction and maintenance this year. The total amount available to all the states is about $622,000,000. The general manager of the street railway company of St. Joseph, B. C. Adams also agreed to work out some arbitration clause to insert in the new contract.

No Let-Up in Quality

THE one factor which is guarded carefully and never allowed to vary is the quality of products manufactured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The price may go up or down as the markets of the world may dictate, the quantity of products may vary as the demand for them varies, but the quality which has been established by specifications determined with scientific exactness, remains fixed.

Only an organization financially secure, physically well-equipped and directed by men mentally alert, could maintain the high standard of quality which has been the crowning achievement of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is an organization of 25,000 experienced, capable men and women who are carrying out with enthusiasm the plans and policies formulated by 7 trained directors.

These plans and policies are designed to furnish maximum service to the public, regular profitable employment to the personnel and protection to the more than $200,000,000 which the stockholders have invested in the business.

In furnishing service to the public no single factor is so important as the insistence upon a uniform high quality of every gallon of product manufactured, an insistence which is felt in the most remote corner of the organization and of the 11 states served by the Company.

Take, as an example, Red Crown gasoline. This is but one of fifteen kinds of gasoline manufactured and sold by this organization. Each is made to meet certain uses for which gasoline is needed. Red Crown is made for use in the modern internal combustion engine and for this purpose it has no superior. Red Crown is the last word in a gasoline for power purposes. That this is generally recognized is attested by the fact that last year 725,000,000 gallons were sold and used by the people of the Middle West.

This tremendous volume is the inevitable result of uniformity, high quality and reasonable price. It is but one phase of the business but it serves to symbolize the earnest, honest endeavor which every individual connected with the organization is putting forth to enable the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to furnish the public a highly essential service.

American Business Is Going Forward

Regardless of the Views of Pessimists

The mass of the people have more money and are making larger incomes than probaly at any previous time in history.

The growing pains incident to a readjustment in many industries are by some grossly magnified far beyond sane probabilities.

Now is the time when manufacturers and retailers should insure their future prosperity by rational but confidence-inspiring newspaper advertising.

If everyone would but seek to find market for a rational product at fair prices and temporarily eliminate the tendency of crowding labor down, business would more speedily reach a new normal. No one ever got rich or increased the volume of his business or profits by sitting down and crying calamity.

Newspaper advertising provides the very best and most effective way for reaching the people of the United States, who today have over $37,000,000,000 on deposit in our various banks.

Why waste time with intermediary impediments? Advertise your wares and let American business go forward.

"ARMENIAN NATION LOOKS TO U. S. FOR SUCCOR FROM DEATH"

Edwin M. Bulkley, Financier and Philanthropist, Defines Near East Relief Work.

New York.—"There is no spot on the globe today where there is more desperate and hopeless suffering than in Armenia," Edwin M. Bulkley, the well known New York banker, who has just been elected chairman of the board of trustees of Near East Relief, declared today. Mr. Bulkley succeeds the late Alexander J. Hemphill as head of the American relief work in Armenia, Turkey, Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia and Persia. He has long been connected with the banking house of Spencer Trask & Co., and is thoroughly conversant with the Near Eastern situation.

"Elsewhere," Mr. Bulkley continued, "there is famine that tears at our heart-strings and evokes our pity and our help. But in Armenia it is not starvation alone that the people face—but starvation coming after six years destruction, wrought by a war that has never ended and that today is not even ended. It is starvation following pestilence, and stalking hand in hand with death from exposure, from violence or from disease.

"In the mountains between Kars and Alexandropol there are 262,000 human beings without clothing, food or shelter in the bitter winter, who are wandering from place to place like people in a nightmare. Unless they are succored before the end of another month, they will all be dead. In southern Persia, the remnant of the ancient family of Chaldean Christians have been forced to renounce forever all hope of ever returning to the homeland where they have dwelt and flourished for 1,600 years, and to become pitiful fugitives, dependent upon the generosity of strangers for life itself. In Cilicia, 15,000 Armenian refugees have crowded into the coast regions seeking safety from the anarchy which reigns in the interior, in terror for their lives. They live from day to day on the food which is given them in the soup kitchens established by the Near East Relief. Scattered throughout the Near East, there are some 7,799,490 Armenians, the remainder of a nation of 4,000,000, who have neither government, country, homeland, shelter or hope of regeneration, save that which lies in the great heart of America.

"It is a tragedy so stupendous that it is difficult for us to grasp its meaning. A whole nation, a living, Christian people, face to face with extermination today, unless we help. We shall see an entire nation disappear from the face of the earth before our eyes if we withhold our hand now, when the call comes to us to save by giving, or by inaction to condemn to death.

Save the Children!

"Perhaps we cannot save all the grown people of this oldest Christian nation in the world. But at least we can save the little children who hold the future in their hands. They have wronged no one. They have harmed no one. And they have suffered through the precious years of childhood a calvary of agony and wretchedness. For three years the Near East Relief, an American organization, incorporated by Congress, has built up the nucleus of a new generation in the Near East, with the little children that it has taken in from the roadside and barren places, and nursed back to health, fed, clothed, housed and educated, in the name of the American people who have furnished the funds for this great work.

"This has been our signal contribution to the world's future peace—that tens of thousands of these little ones shall all their lives look to us with gratitude and faith. It is a seed of world brotherhood that we have sown. Shall we let it die now?

"The Near East Relief is appealing to the American people for the money to go on with this work—to keep these little ones alive and to save this martyred Christian people. Sixty dollars per year—$10 per month—feeds a child. We have taken this great responsibility upon us. A whole nation looks to us in faith and trust.

"We cannot betray them now."

South America

THE UNDEVELOPED CONTINENT

BY DR. A. C. MILLAR

VI. THE REASONS FOR UNSATISFACTORY RELATIONS.

North America and South America are in the Western Hemisphere and both believe in republican forms of government. We have products which South America needs. Why then is our export trade only 14 per cent of the total exports to Latin America? Why has France furnished five times as many motor cars, Germany twenty times as many iron beams, and England twice as much machinery?"

We have failed to study and understand our neighbors. We take their revolutions too seriously. We imagine that their countries are all unhealthful. We do not comprehend the Latin American mind, and consequently do not seek to adapt our methods and products to their requirements. Because our shovels and plows and stoves suit us, we think that these people should like and want them. We overlook the fact that until a man has learned how to use the best machinery he prefers the simpler. We boast of our superiority, which is always and everywhere offensive, while many South Americans have been educated in Europe and speak two or three languages, and few of us speak other tongues sufficiently to use them in business. We have few salesmen who are able or willing to deal with Latin Americans on their own terms.

We are not as careful as are European governments to send well-equipped men as consuls to these countries. Our representatives on account of their brusque manners are justly criticised by the suave foreigners. Social and business life are so closely interlaced that our salesmen and consuls need to make a special study of the niceties of social intercourse. We call ourselves "Americans" when we have no exclusive right to the term, and the South Americans properly call us "North Americans" by way of differentiation. Our manufacturers and shippers, failing to realize the transportation difficulties, do not adequately pack their goods, which, consequently, often arrive in bad condition, and further orders become impossible. The demands for our goods have been so great at home that we have not diligently sought foreign markets, and our merchant marine was too small to avail in developing trade. While it is true that our goods may reach their destination in foreign bottoms, it is also true that the ships of a nation create business for their own people far more than they do for strangers. In many European countries labor conditions make lower prices possible. As we do not wish to lower our standards of living for labor, it is imperative that by our better labor we produce more and better goods, or competition is vain. Japan with a rapidly growing and wonderfully efficient merchant marine is reaching out for South American trade, and Germany, although temporarily at a disadvantage, is preparing to regain what has been lost and more. Our banks must also plan to meet South American demands for longer time and better facilities for obtaining credit. It is claimed that Germany's banking system has been its greatest factor in controlling South American trade. Their banks are to be found in all important places and they have eliminated the red-tape which has prevailed among our banks in dealing with Latin America.

A very discriminating writer of this country says: "Two things the Latin American and Spaniard will not change, and these are his language and customs. No matter how modernized he may be, no matter how up to date his country may be, no matter how much he may travel or how many tongues he may speak, yet his time honored customs and his beloved Castilian are as enduring as the ever lasting hills and as unalterable as the laws of the Medes and Persians. Particularly is this true of his business ways, and whoever essays to deal with him successfully must realize this and adapt himself to conditions."

South America needs railroads and machinery and electrical appliances and automobiles. It particularly needs improvements in agricultural machinery and methods. We need the South American coffee and cacao and hides and tungsten, vanadium, chromium molybdenum, platinum and tin. The great Panama Canal now makes trade with the West Coast comparatively easy. Ours is the nearest nation to that coast. Shall we try to understand conditions and then prepare ourselves intelligently and thoroughly to meet them? If we do not, we shall of all nations be the least wise in regard to the things which make for peace and prosperity in the Western world.

MADISON CERTAIN TO BE DISTRICT ATTORNEY AT K. C

So Says Reily, Harding's Friend, Who Returned From Washington Trip.

"C. C. Madison will be the next United States district attorney at Kansas City."

Such was the positive prediction made by E. Mont Reily, personal friend and preconvention Western manager for President Harding, on his return to Kansas City Tuesday, says the Kansas City Post.

While Reily would not discuss the attitude of Senator Spencer in holding up Madison's appointment by the president he made it clear that he expected Madison's introduction into office might be delayed only temporarily.

Whether the President would make a recess appointment or send Madison's name again to the senate for confirmation when the special session of congress convenes April 11, Reily would make no statement.

Reily went to Washington and obtained Madison's appointment at the hands of the President without Senator Spencer's indorsement. The holding up of Madison's appointment by Spencer may result in a serious split between the Missouri Republican solon and the President.

Silent on Harding Comment.

"I'll not discuss what the President had to say about the Madison appointment," said Reily. "Madison had the indorsements, all right.

"It's only proper for me to tell the kind of indorsements that were turned in for Madison.

"Madison was indorsed by 11 of the 14 Republican congressmen from Missouri, by 16 of the 19 Republican state senators, the majority of the Republicans of the lower house, all of the state Republican officers except Governor Hyde, who refused to indorse anyone.

"He also had the indorsement of 26 of the 46 members of the Jackson county and congressional committees. He did not ask the other 20 to indorse him. He was indorsed by a majority of the Republican state executive committee, by Mrs. A. Brueggemann, woman member of the Republican national committee from Missouri, and by the leading Republican leaders of the state regardless of factions.

"Two years ago Madison was chairman of the committee that pressed the reform measures before the legislature. He held that same position this year and all the reform measures passed by the Republicans at Jefferson City were either drafted by him or fathered by him.

"Two years ago Madison was county and congressional chairman and was the leader of the so-called 'anti-boss' movement.

"He was touted then as the real leader of the party in Jackson county. He was quoted daily in certain of the Kansas City press, but alas—what happened?

"He joined with those who were trying to nominate Harding for president, and from then on he fell from grace in the eyes of certain Republicans opposing Harding.

"He has ceased to be one of the 'anti-boss' elite because he supported Harding for president."

Reily would not "confess nor confirm" the newspaper reports from Washington that he was slated for a "big appointment."

"I'm not an applicant for any office," said Reily.

WOULD GIVE BANK MORE PROTECTION SAYS OFFICIAL

Comptroller of Currency Wants Banking Act Amended to Protect Against Failures

By W. H. Atkins
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Washington, Mar.—National banks must be made absolutely immune from failure because of bank "runs" or other sudden emergencies. To this end Comptroller of the Currency Williams has urged Congress to amend the banking Act to allow solvent banks to meet runs with funds obtained from Federal Reserve banks upon good securities which are not now "ligible" as security under the laws as it stands.

"The suspension of a large and sound national bank because of its inability to realize promptly on high-grade securities and loans in order to meet a run might precipitate a crisis which it might be difficult to stem," Williams told Congress. He said banks should be given further protection in such emergencies.

The Comptroller asserts that amendment of the Bank Act, such as he recommends, would prove "distinctly salutary," and would largely dispel nervousness which sometimes arises in financial circles because of the possible dangers of the situation as the law is now framed. He maintains this step would also inspire increased confidence in the whole banking field.

Make Failure Impossible

With such an amendment as I suggest the suspension or failure of an honestly conducted national bank would be practically impossible," said Williams.

Discussing his proposal, Mr. Williams said it would operate not only for greater safety for banking institutions, but would provide further guarantee of the security of the funds intrusted to the banks by depositors.

Comptroller Williams reiterated that the nation's banks are safe and sound, and are more secure than at any previous period in history. But he said the adoption of additional safeguards will raise banking confidence to maximum. Assurance to the public, he contends, that bank failures are virtually impossible would bring out hidden wealth into useful industrial avenues.

How To Revitalize Wornout Exhausted Nerves

Your nerve power depends on plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is entirely different than from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalize wornout, exhausted nerves and give you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. Beware of substitutes. Always insist upon having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

Economy in Coffee

Nearly all of us try to economize, but we often lack the information necessary to enable us to choose best values and at the same time avoid extravanganee. Low prices in coffee are particularly deceiving. The comparative strength in different blends is little known to the consumer and they rarely compare flavors or aromas. Experience and exhaustive tests prove the best coffee to be the most economical and we call your attention to Batavia, because it will make more cups of better quality. Use Batavia and enjoy the double satisfaction to be derived from drinking the best of coffee on a money-saving basis.

Special Prices on Coffee, Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Friday and Saturday, a demonstrator will be at our store and serve samples of Batavia and Batavia Pure Foods. A lady demonstrator will also serve Gold Nut, the perfect butter substitute, and a representative from the mills will show the superior excellence of PPP FLOUR.

A representative of the California Orange Growers' Association will also be with us Friday and Saturday.

You are cordially invited to our store during these demonstrations.

A NEW TRIPPLE ALLIANCE—AMERICA, FRANCE AND ENGLAND

Paris, March 23—The cornerstone of the new triple association of nations—America, England and France may be laid in Washington by Viviani now enroute to America on a special mission to confer with President Harding. This view of the new society of powers was set forth today by Henry Franklin Boullon, former member of the French cabinet.

EIGHT CIVILIANS REPORTED KILLED IN BATTLE TODAY.

Cork, March 23.—Eight civilians were reported killed and twenty wounded in a desperate battle between Republicans and the crown forces near Dingle today. Eleven military policemen were ambushed by the Republicans.

Dublin, March 23.—Sixty persons were killed in Ireland during the past seventy-two hours. Eighteen had no direct connection with the Sinn Feins or crown forces. More than one hundred were wounded. Two brothers were found dead in a field near Ennisocrothy, both of them being shot through the head. Their arms were bounded upon breast with card reading, "convicted spy."

BANKER'S INCOME 3500,000; NOT SUFFICIENT FOR ALIMONY.

White Plains, March 23.—Alleging that Mrs. James Fifi Stillman had taken as her lover, an Indian guide, who became father of her infant, Guy, Attorney Nicoll, counsel for the multi-millionaire banker in his divorce suit, made a sensational fight in court here today against the wife's demands for $120,000 alimony annually and $25,000 counsel fees. The counsel for the president of the bank of the National City of New York presented figures to show his income last year was $500,000 and was not sufficient to meet his wife's demands. Justice Morschauser reserved his decision on Mrs. Stillman's alimony motion when the case ended.

BEAUTIFUL "VAMP" LEADS BANDIT BAND.

Sioux Falls, S. D., March 23.—The authorities of Salem, Spencer and other towns near here are seeking the beautiful "vamp" who is advance agent for a bandit gang which recently has visited a number of stories in these villages.

The young woman's method of operation is reported to be simple. She visits a store, "vamps" an employe into telling where funds are kept, and then a night or two later, leads her bandit gang back to obtain the loot.

JUNGLE EXERCISES FOR LONDON CHILDREN.

London, March 23.—"Kangaroo hopping," "crab-walking," "cat walking," "turkey trotting," and "snail crawling" are movements to be taught in elementary schools by the London County Council in order to produce a nation of straight-backed, supple-limbed boys and girls.

Animal gestures of the most awkward kinds are now being studied by the teachers so that jungle-gymnasties may be correctly performed.

The gyrations of catherine wheels are somehow to be emulated in one exercise, while the gracefulness of an aeroplane in flight forms the subject of another.

Quitman?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And held up the cashier, Mr. Bailey, and got the money?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, have you ever been in any trouble before?

A. Yes, sir, I was in trouble once before—that is I took the trouble on myself. When some other man said I was with him I was not, but when the case fell against my wife and father-in-law, I took the trouble on myself and gave up. I proved I did not have anything to do with it and after eighteen months was turned loose.

Q. Where were you convicted?

A. Labette County, Kansas.

Q. That was 1917?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the sentence you got?

A. Ten to twenty-one years.

Q. Pursuant to that sentence you served ten years in jail?

A. No, sir; was released to provide for wife; went to work for J. C. Liles. Kept working for Liles for some time. After that Liles turned me out, I got discouraged, had trouble, my home burned up, was out of work, my wife got sick, couldn't find any work, so came here for work.

Q. Did you serve a term in any county in Iowa?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember forging a money order at College Springs?

A. I don't know, don't think I did.

Q. You know whether you were in jail in Iowa, as a matter of fact, that is true isn't it?

A. Well you gave me privilege to answer if I wanted to.

Q. Is there any other place you have been in jail?

A. No, sir.

Q. Now Quitman: Were you there last Friday?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You went in the bank at what time?

A. I don't know the exact time, about noon.

Q. Have you ever been in the bank before?

A. No.

Q. Was there anyone in the bank other than the cashier?

A. No, sir.

Q. Tell us now, Kent, in your own way what you did after you got in the bank.

A. I don't know whether I can or not; really I did not know what I was doing.

Q. First thing you did after you got in there was to draw a revolver on Bailey?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And command him to hold up his hands?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then command him to lie down on the floor?

A. I don't know whether I did that or not.

Q. Later put him in the vault and locked the vault, that is true isn't it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then took the money in sight and from the drawers and left the bank?

A. I did not bother the drawers, only the money on the counter and what he handed me from the vault.

Q. You went east from the bank down to the point where you stated to me you hid some of the money and then in a southwesterly direction from there?

A. Yes, I went across the road.

Q. Was anyone with you?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did anyone help you plan this robbery?

A. No, sir, no one said a word; I had no idea of doing this.

Q. You went to Mr. Grooms' to get money to go home?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know George Wilson?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is he a relative of yours?

A. No relation to me, my sister married his brother.

Q. Well, he was down the other day and claimed the gun you had, says you got it from his house when you was up there a few days ago.

A. I positively known this is not so. Wilson never owned the gun.

Q. Have you been in the habit of carrying a gun?

A. No, I have not been in the habit of carrying a gun, but took it with me when I was trying to get work. Been out of work for last six months, work every day I can get work. I've got a two year old boy, gentlemen. On his account give me a chance.

Q. Did you register at Clearmont?

A. I came here on the 7th day of June to register, didn't get to register on the 5th on account of high water.

Q. Wasn't it because you were drunk on the 5th of June, the reason you did not register, rather than high water?

A. No, I came from Oswego here to register, couldn't get across, wasn't round Cleadmont the 5th of June.

Q. You were drunk when you were brought down here June 6, to register?

A. Was not drunk enough but what I could register.

Q. Have you heard from your wife since this last trouble?

A. No, sir. I wrote to her the other day.

Q. Of course you will plead guilty?

A. I will tell the judge.

MISS LAUGHLIN IS MAKING HAY WHILE THE SUN SHINES

About 165 Children in Rural Schools Have Been Examined in Few Weeks

Miss Blanche Laughlin, Red Cross Nurse is making hay while the sun shines in order to visit most of the schools before school closes April 23. In the last month while the weather has been good Miss Laughlin has been visiting schools. This week Miss Laughlin visited the following districts: Gill; Allbright; Swallow, Morgan.

Previous to that time, but within the last few weeks Miss Laughlin has examined the children at the Highland; Black Oak; Blackman; Bloomdale; Myrtle Tree; Mt. Ayr; and Council Corner. Approximately 165 children in the rural communities have had the attention of a trained nurse. Where there were serious defects or those likely to prove so, Miss Laughlin has sent word to the parents, who are expected to attend to the matter. The nurse does not prescribe but leaves that to the family physician. In most instances the parents are glad to know in time that the children may be relieved. It is neccessary Miss Laughlin thinks to have all illnesses relieved before hot weather comes.

The clinics are being held from 1:30 to 3 every Friday afternoon at the Red Cross Health Center. Mothers may bring the children there for examination. This is open to every one in Nodaway County not just to the mothers of Maryville. Miss Laughlin expects to continue her work through the summer; examining the children brought in and in child welfare work.

PENNY SOCIAL WAS GIVEN BY BOYS' CLASS LAST NIGHT

Had to Pay Penny for Each Inch of Height for Admission to House.

A penny social was given last night at the First Christian church by one of the boys' classes of the Sunday School to raise money for the Easter offering. A penny was charged for everything.

To get in each person had to pay a penny for every inch of his height, while if he bought candy or cakes or saw a show he must pay a penny, also. The class has been without a regular teacher for several weeks. O. E. Collins, assistant pastor, has had it most of the time, however, and he assisted the boys in making the social a success last night.

Each class of the Sunday School gives something at Easter for the Christian Orphans' Home in St. Louis. Most of the classes earn this money. Last year it amounted to $500 when it was all handed in. G. B. Roseberry, superintendent, is urging the children to do that well this season.

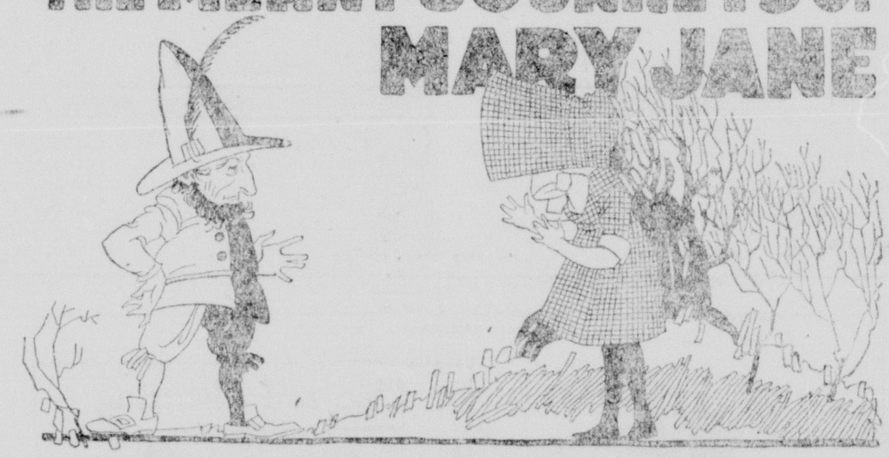
THE MERRY JOURNEYS OF MARY JANE



"It's the best thing I ever tasted"—says Old John to Mary Jane

Mary Jane and the Little Old Man in the Woods

ONE day, when Mary Jane got to be a great big girl, nine years old, she met a little old man at the edge of the woods. He was the funniest little old man you ever saw. Dressed all in green on one side, and all in red on the other. One of his feet was turned frontwards and the other was turned backwards, so you could never know which way he was going until he started.

This little old man's name was Old John-Star. He had lived in the woods for a long, long time. What he had come to see Mary Jane for was about the de-li-cious Mary Jane Syrup that Jimmy Jones, the woodchuck, told him about.

Mary told him all about how good Mary Jane Syrup was for everybody, and ran into the house and got him a couple of waffles that were still hot from lunch, and put a lot of syrup on them, and gave them to Old John-Star.

Old John ate every bit of them, smacked his lips and said, "It's the best thing I ever tasted, and I don't blame folks for being so en-thu-si-as-tic about Mary Jane Syrup. It's everything they say about it, and a little more."

And then he took two steps forward and one step back, and finally got started away from there in the right direction, and Mary Jane was glad that she had made another friend who would be glad all the days of his life that she had told him about Mary Jane Syrup.

Just suppose you could be free from your deepseated, agonizing rheumatic aches and pains, your stiff joints and unsightly swellings! Wouldn't you give anything to get rid of them?

You have doubtless rubbed on outside treatments; most rheumatism sufferers have. Some of these take the edge off the terrible pains for a few hours, but they do not strike at the cause, which nearly always lies in the poisoned, impoverished blood.

When this is so, you need an internal remedy, one that will take out the impurities that are torturing you, one like famous S.S.S., which has relieved thousands of cases of rheumatism all over the country just this way.

HEROISM SHOWN BY AMERICAN WORKERS OF NEAR EAST RELIEF

Cables Reveal Appalling Armenian Need—Hundreds of Thousands Starving.

By CHARLES V. VICKREY
General Secretary, Near East Relief

Charles V. Vickrey

Approximately 500 American men and women are standing loyally and heroically at their posts in Armenia, Turkey and the Near East. Many of them during the long winter of isolation are undergoing what we in America call "hardship." But these, our fellow citizens in the Near East, are volunteers serving with a high purpose, and they do not recognize hardship when they meet it.

They have had their opportunity to withdraw with honor from the field of famine and desolation. They have refused to leave, because they know that their departure would mean death for tens of thousands of women and children whom their efforts have kept alive and whom they are determined to save for a better future.

A dozen cables are on my desk from various centers in Armenia, Anatolia, Cilicia and Syria pleading piteously for the lives of hundreds of thousands who are homeless: "Sixty-five thousand refugees Constantinople alone;" "Refugees flocking into Aleppo;" "Twenty thousand refugees at Ismid;" "One hundred thousand people at Alexandropol will starve unless relief is provided;" "Refugees arriving from Caucasus, escaping persecution, naked, destitute! Urgent need to save most of them from death;" "Two hundred thousand starving between Kars and Alexandropol! Severe winter adding to distress."

Above all towers the mute appeal of the more than 100,000 little children, orphaned, homeless, whom these American relief workers have saved and whom we here at home must sustain not only through the winter and spring, but through the summer and autumn as well. If we do not provide, they perish! And with them dies the hope of a New Near East.

The Easter season is here—the season that commemorates the Great Sacrifice for mankind. America is known as a Christian nation. She is also the wealthiest nation that history has ever known.

Can we really enjoy our wealth and claim the name of Christian if we turn a deaf ear to the appeal which General Leonard Wood, in behalf of the Near East Relief, has sent forth broadcast for a Lenten Sacrifice Offering to save these little children in Bible Lands?

WIFE'S ALLOWANCE TOO OFTEN A MOCKERY, SAYS BENNETT

Continually Liable Ahat Any Account Must be Rendered of Acts.

"Beyond the two allowances" (Housekeeping allowances and dress allowances), says Arnold Bennett in March Hearst's, "ninety per cent of wives whose husbands are in an affluent or comfortable position get naught—unless they ask for it. And when they ask they have to submit to cross-examination, perhaps criticism, perhaps protests, perhaps refusal. And at best they have to submit to receiving a favor. Necessarily they are continually aware of the sensation of being liable to render an account of their acts. They have no financial margin for whims, secrecies, foolishness, wastefulness.

"Contrast the case of the husband. It occurs, of course, in many families that there is no financial margin anywhere. But if there is one the husband monopolizes it. He knows the proceedings of his wife; she does not know his proceedings. Husbands exsist and flourish who, living on a salary, omit to tell their wives the amount thereof or under state it. When a husband behaves foolishly in a financial sense he is not distressed by the idea that his wife will complain; his wife won't know anything about it.

"His wife will never say to him: 'Look here, you had ten dollars loose in your pocket yesterday and there is only half a dollar today. How extravagant you are! Do you think we are made of money?'

"The husband is not liable to render an account. He conducts his operations in the dark, secure from inquisition and judgment. And I doubt whether there is anything on earth which the average husband cherishes more than this darkness and this security from family interference and critical curiosity.

"When all is said for and against the wife and for and against the husband in this complicated and delicate affair, it will not be denied that the average wife has a substantial grievance, or that the injustice from which she suffers must diminish the sum of her happiness in matrimony, besides encouraging her in courses of conduct which are manifestly bad for character.

"The average wife is in one exceedingly important respect at the mercy of another human being—her husband. This ought not to be. She has done nothing to merit her servitude. She has committed no dreadful sin which should debar her from the exercise of the common rights of an adult individual. The fact that by mutual arrangements she undertakes duties—some of them may not be easily definable, but they are there—which are not paid for in cash, can not fairly disentitle her to the undisputed control of cash. She should be so situated as to be able to gratify whims of her own instead of being exposed forever to the whims of another."

PLAGUES, WARS ARE FORTUITOUS SAYS JOHN BURROUGHS

Not Part Regular Order—Famous Naturalist Who Will Soon Be 84 Is Recording Observations.

Pasadena, Cal., March —.Plagues and famines and wars are fortuitous and not a part of the regular order like health, or growth, or development. They are accidents of nature."

This is the observation of John Burroughs, famous naturalist, who is spending the Winter at Pasadena Glen, near here, and recording his observations on the psychology of old age. Mr. Burroughs will be eighty-four on April 3.

The great naturalist says he is "taking things in an easy way" for he feels he has about completed his life's work. His mind is as keen and alert as ever, but he complains that he tires quickly after long mental application.

"I did not tire until after five or six hours of work until recently," he said. 'Now I can't do much more than two hours at a stretch."

His latest published work, "Accepting the Universe," does not show any lessening of Mr. Burroughs' vigorous powers, for in it he discusses many phases of nature and human life.

Mr. Burroughs has kindly face, a pleasant, well modulated voice and speaks with deliberation. His hearing is excellent and he readily answers to a voice spoken in a low tone even on another side of the room from him.
